PHYSICAL RESTRAINT AND SECLUSION OF STUDENTS AND THE USE OF EXCLUSIONARY TIME OUT

Stamford Academy seeks to foster a safe and positive learning environment for all students. School employees will restrict the use of physical restraint and seclusion of students to emergency situations, in accordance with this policy and accompanying administrative regulations and applicable law. Physical restraint or seclusion of a student may be necessary in an emergency situation to maintain the safety of the student or another individual. Stamford Academy also regulates the use of exclusionary time out in accordance with this Policy and accompanying regulations and applicable law.

The Stamford Academy Board of Directors authorizes the School Director or his/her designee to develop and Implement Administrative Regulations in accordance with this Policy and applicable law. The Board of Directors mandates compliance with this Policy and associated Administrative regulations at all times. Violations of this Policy and associated Administrative Regulations by a Stamford Academy staff member or other individual working at the direction of, or under the supervision of Stamford Academy, may result in disciplinary action, up to and including possible termination of employment status and/or termination of contract for services.

Nothing within these regulations shall be construed to interfere with the responsibility of Stamford Academy to maintain a safe school setting, in accordance with Connecticut General Statutes § 10-220. Under no circumstances shall employees or individuals under the supervision of Stamford Academy use corporal punishment with students or physically manage students for purposes of discipline.
